2017 Goodbyes and Hellos

The old year ends with a farewell to departing CEO Sharon Hall. For many years Sharon served the members of Express Credit Union by promoting our mission to provide accessible and affordable financial services for individuals and families of Western Washington. She has earned our thanks for her hard work, passion and total dedication to making our community stronger for everyone. We wish Sharon well as she continues to work for the common good in her new role supporting Community Development Credit Unions all over the U.S.

2017 arrived with Paul Baudin taking leadership of Express Credit Union as new CEO. Paul served as a volunteer Express board member for several years and recently was the credit union's Chief Financial Officer. He is looking forward to working with the great Express team in serving you, our members. Paul is excited about continuing to improve the ways we help members achieve their financial goals and introducing more products that fit your needs.

Happy 2017!
